IN REPLY REFER TO:

Jan. 28, 1962

Dear Mum + Dad,

Well we are through with our Mine sweep training and sitting once again alongside pier 9 in Long Beach. Tomorrow we get an Administrative Inspection and soon thereafter the Captain will be relieved and then my troubles will start all over again. What a life. I'm still waiting to find out whether or not I will be able to go to Post Graduate school in Monterey. If I get that I'll be a happy man.

As of right now tonight it looks as though my marriage will take place in May or June. I will have to be around for awhile to get the new Captain on his feet and he should be all squared away by May.

After we start operating much during May or June. I haven't told Jennie yet because I still can not see.

Our patterns are as follows.

Silver: Alexandria - Lunt

China: Ancestral - Minton

Crystal: Clergywood - Casso, Bavaria

I think they are beautiful and hope you approve.

I miss you all.

Love,
Cass
