Dearest Jack,

I'm sorry that I couldn't drop you a card yesterday but by the time I got there and all that it was 7:30 and then by the time I ate and got to Zella it was 9:30 and then we got to talking so you will have to excuse me this time, sweet, wont you? But here I am writing to you.

Zella has a very nice place. She lives on a very busy street. It like Broad St. back home.

The bus came in about 20 minutes late. and then we had to go home on the street car.

Barney came over later and took us riding. I saw the street Liverios that where you were born. isnt it. Between what streets were you born?

me five dollars and then my dad must have felt kind of sorry so he gave me 3 dollars. But boy I'm never going back home again to stay, even if I have to starve. maybe I will just go home for a visit or go over to your house or something like that.

Well, dear, I'll have to close as I have no more news right now.

yours,

Evelyn

P.S. When I was going to Toledo I saw there was going to be circus on Stickney ave.

We went riding for quite a while. (so what right? for some reason or the other I can't think straight.)

There is a great big beer bottle across the street from where zella lives. and it looks just like a real one.

Gosh, honey, I sure do miss you something awful. I keep wishing you were here by my side instead of me having to write to you.

How many gals have you taken out already. No Al came down yet for those dates. Please go out, honey, and have a good time.

are you still working? Have they called you yet for that other job?

How is your mother & Dad? Say hello to them for me.

When I was going to go, mon morning my dad at first ~~he~~ didn't want to give me any money so Jim gave
