Dearest Kids;

Just another short letter here to let you know that I am out there in Japan during just fine with everything that goes with it. Came in here Tuesday morning and been pretty busy here and the shop is in the best of everything. This place is really cold at the time .

There isn't much of anything that going on around this place that I could tell you about the just about the same thing as before.

How are the girls coming long, I am sure that they are in the best of everything, Give them all my love for me too.

I really don't have to tell you here so I think no news is the good news. So how I can't think. I think that I am too much work to do around here.

I got a letter from Mother Price this morning and she was really disappointed for me not coming home this time.

Well dear let us call this a letter for now until I do write again.

Tell blue eye and La Veerna I send them all my love.

With all my love
