DEAR MRS VASOS,

Since I don't know Bill's address, other than Little Luck--ill, write you a page, & him a page, and let you forward his to him, or both of them as you prefer.

I sincerely hope and know that you and the new member of the Vasos household are getting along fine - and I want to express my sincere appreciation for knowing such a family.

Crossing the party barrier of religious creeds - we're all the children of one God and one Master Jesus Christ - some-many of us refusing to acknowledge him - many taking the Devil - many just riding "in between" - but all coming from & returning eventually for judgement to the same eternal Lord. I am proud - I say it honestly - I am extremely proud to have been privileged to have spent the time I did with Bill - & to learn of a family who are not afraid to live their religion every day as they do on Sunday morning - This world is in very great need of more of it. I hope & trust that God will again privilege me to continue my association with Bill - and I know, as you do also - and have a comfort in knowing as do you - that wherever he goes - whatever he does - Christ will lead him back to you & his "kids" - & some sweet, and not too distant day - we can all perhaps spend some time together. I should like very much to meet you sometime you and those fine "kids" that Bill is so very proud of.

Well - good luck - and I hope I may hear from you sometime soon

Come
