Dear Uncle Charley,

How are you feeling now. I have some fine news for you. You do not know ^{who} was here last Sunday to our house ~~&~~ Paul Wherry the boy that was with you in the hospital hospital is a spelling word we had in school. Uncle Charley will you please bring me a Sauerbier from France Mr.
W. had showed us a snatched letter and would you please bring me a coin. Mother saw in the paper to-day April 9, 1919 that the 29th the 33rd and another division another word from school to-day the 29th he home very soon because the motor blew broke. You know we are going down the bay

to meet you & we met the 27th so be on the lookout for us. aunt Irene Mother and I will look for you with the ~~war~~ telescope and I will salute
in your hand and read this side and if you see a lady with a red hat and and white band and a velvet coat you will know it is mother and if you see a little girl with a ~~hat~~ sailor hat and a green coat it is me dont forget the Souvenir for me ~~at~~
