

Chapman University

Chapman University Digital Commons

James B. Safford Civil War Correspondence Collection

CAWL Archives: The Civil War

11-3-1864

1864-11-03, James B. to James M.

James Broderick Safford

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/jbsafford_collection

Recommended Citation

Safford, James Broderick, "1864-11-03, James B. to James M." (1864). James B. Safford Civil War Correspondence Collection. 21.

https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/jbsafford_collection/21

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: The Civil War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in James B. Safford Civil War Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

1864-11-03, James B. to James M.

Keywords

U.S.A., U.S. Soldiers, Columbus, IN, correspondence, army, troops, postal service, family, father, son, cavalry, comradery, morale, self-determination, company, Pulaski, TN, military police, rank, rebels, thoughts on the enemy, combat, marching and drill, Tennessee River, Decatur, AL, brother, election, prisoners, prisoners of war, medical personnel, Nashville, TN, gifts, clothing, humor

Identifier

2013.070.w.r_Safford_americancivilwar_1864-11-03_022

Sept 30/1864

Office Provost Marshal,

Pulaski, Tenn., Sept 30th 1864.

Dear Father

I wrote you a long letter day before yesterday giving you full particulars of the fight here and everything else but Jo Dracmwell is going to Nashville and the letter mailed here may be delayed. So I will write you a few lines and have Jo mail it at Nashville. The Rebels have not ventured near here since their defeat of Sunday - Baker is getting well fast - The found more Rebel dead and wounded on the field than we had any idea of. Our loss is not near as heavy as theirs. We lost a great many horses though - I have not heard from George since the 20th nor from you since the 19th please write immediately and also send papers - The train is ready to go and is waiting so good Bye I am safe as yet -
Your aff son
J. D. Safford

[[Safford Correspondence #22]]

[[Page 1- Letter]]

[[different handwriting:]] Sept 30/1864

[[embossing print of a Court House]]

[[Letterhead: Office Provost Marshal

Pulaski, Tenn.,]] Sept 30th [[1864]]

My Dear Father

I wrote you a long letter day before yesterday giving you full particulars of the fight here and every thing else and Jo Bramwell is going to Nashville and the letter mailed here may be delayed some I will write you a few lines and have Jo mail it at Nashville the Rebs have not ventured near here since their Defeat of Thursday – Baker is getting well fast – We found more Rebel Dead and wounded on the field than we had any idea of our loss is not near as heavy as theirs We lost a great may Horses though – I have not heard from Georgie since the 20th nor from you since the 19th please write immediately and also send papers – the train is ready to go and Jo is mailing so good Bye I am safe as yet --

Your Off son

J. B. Safford