UNITED STATES MARINE CORPS
CAMP JOSEPH H. PENDLETON
OCEANSIDE, CALIFORNIA

Sept - 4 - 44

Dear Irene:

Hells. Surprised to hear from me I'll bet. I thought I would drop you line before I went over and started to win the war. The Japs are tearing their radios out trying to warn the Japs in the South Pacific of the coming of Larry. Cute huh! All kidding aside I hope you won't be angry because I took the liberty to write to you. I just want to say so - long to you and your family. Hope they are all doing ok. Especially the little one.

Cis tells me that the little one roars Judy for cuteness. Saw about that. She will have to go some to beat Judy. I suppose Ronnie Bell is happy about going to school. If he is like his Aunt I know how he feels Ha! Ha!

Where's Bill now? Is he still in Maryland? Cis tells me that he expects to come home this month sometime. Gee I hope so. Guess I'll have to wait awhile before I can come home. But I'll get there sooner or later. This way I'll be able to come home for a month when I come back from overseas.

I expect to be going out some time this week. Perhaps to the time you receive this I'll be on my way. In way I wish I would. I'm getting tired of lying around. I layed around a month in the hospital and now all we do is ~~of~~ lie around camp.

Isn't seem possible I've been in here eleven months. Last year at this time I was up to your house at least three times a week. Of course lots of times you didn't know it; but I was there. How bad you didn't go to the show more often. Ha! Ha! I suppose Cis will skip me for telling you that. It is a good thing your front steps can't talk. We sit out there on warm moonlite nites with Cis.

Well I guess I'll sign off now. Tell Bill hello for me when he comes home. Cis too. So long and keep the front steps swept off in case I come home unexpectedly. Adios amigos.
