7-26-1937

Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence #022

Evabel Bell

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection

Recommended Citation
Bell, Evabel, "Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence #022" (1937). Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence Collection. 22.
https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection/22

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.
Mr. Jack Bell
51 Groveland St.
Oberlin, O.
Darling,

I received your letter today and am answering you immediately. Yes, darling, I got your own little poem it was so sweet of you. I love to get them.

I'm so glad to hear you are still working. I hope you keep right on until about September. Maybe then things will be better here.

Yes, honey. Thank goodness for the dollar. Boy it sure came in handy.

It seems as though I have so much to say to you and can't say them in writing.

When are you coming in, dear. Please make it soon. And let me know honey. because I want to plan my week-end accordingly. I'll stay with Ann that night. She stays at the Hotel Franklin and maybe you can get a room there for the night so maybe we can get to spend the night together in different rooms. I'll meet you at the bus, honey, so maybe Jim is coming in. Do you and Jim can get a room together and Esther and I can spend the night with him in her room.

Gee, honey, I'd love to come in to see your sister, honey, but it looks like that is almost impossible. But nevertheless tell her to give you a great big kiss for me. Of course it won't be like just last but we have to take everything as it comes.

I wonder what is the matter with Stella. She hasn't answered me yet and usually she answers me so promptly. If you see her ask her what the matter. Have you seen thing? Is he still seeing Isabel everyday? Is he back from his trip and did he stay the whole well through?

Last night I went on the boat. Remembered like we went only kicking. I didn't have half as good a time as I did when I was with you.
I miss you so much, more than I do ordinarily. It seems as though I can't miss you much more and then when I go out with another fellow and when I come home I miss you so much.
not one of the fellows have been as nice as you are sweet or anything or of darling not one of them even compare with you.
I got something for you, sweet, and when the little values off then my love for you will wear off.
I haven't been out jet hunting again, but I'm going out tomorrow.
maybe I'll get something yet. I do hope I get something soon because I can't chisel here very long.
No honey, I'll never go back to Elkton to live. Maybe I might go there for a visit or something like that but as for a living there I think that is out.
I bet Elkton seems so different than it was when I was there. I mean just like if I went to Oberlin and you weren't there. Oh darling don't ever leave me. I need you so much and love you so much.
So long, darling, until very soon and make it very soon.

yours always

Evabel.
Mr. Jack Bell
51 Groveland St.
Oberlin,
O.
12739 Linwood
Detroit, Mich.
Darling,

I received [sic] your letter today and I'm answering you immediately [sic]. Yes darling, I got your own little poem it was so sweet of you. I love to get them.

I'm so glad to hear you are still working. I hope you keep right on until about September. Maybe then things will be better here.

Gee, honey, thanx loads for the dollar. Boy it sure came in handy. It seems as though I have so much to say to you and can't say them in writing.

When are you coming in, dear. Please make it soon. And let me know honey. because I want to plan my week-end accordingly. I'll stay with Ann that night. She stays at the Hotel Franklin and maybe you can get a room there for the night so mabe [sic] we can get to spend the night to-gether in different rooms. I'll meet you at the bus, honey, or maybe Jim is comming [sic] in. So you [&] Jim can get a room to-gether and Esther and I can spend the night with Ann in her room.

Gee, honey, I’d love to come in to see your sister, honey, but it looks like that is almost impossible. But nevertheless tell her to give you a great big kiss for me. Of course it wont [sic] be like first hand but we have to take every thing as it comes.

I wonder what is the matter with Stella. She hasn’t answered me yet and usually she answers me so promptly. If you see her ask her whats the matter. Have you seen Bing? Is he still seeing Isabel every day? Is he back from his trip, and did he stay the whole well through?

Sat night I went on the boat. remember like we went. only, darling, I didn’t have half as good a time as I did when I was with you.
I missed you so much, more than I do ordinarily [sic]. It seems as though I can’t miss you much more and then when I go out with another fellow and when I come home I miss you so much. not one of the fellows have been as nice as you or as sweet or anything or oh darling not one of them even compare with you.

I got something for you, sweet, and when the letters wear off then my love for you will wear off.

I haven’t been out job hunting again, but I’m going out to-morrow. Maybe I’ll get something yet. I do hope I get something soon because I can’t chisel here very long.

No honey, I’ll never go back to Elyria to live. Maybe I might go there for a visit or something like that but as far a living there I think that is out.

I bet Elyria seems so different then [sic] it was when I was there. I mean just like if I went to Oberlin and you weren’t there. Oh darling don't ever leave me. I need you so much.
and love you so much.
So long, darling, until very soon
and make it very soon.

Yours awlays [sic].
Evabel.