

Chapman University

Chapman University Digital Commons

Walter Keeler Second World War
Correspondence Collection

CAWL Archives: Second World War

3-28-1945

1945-03-28, Walter to Florence

Walter Keeler

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/wkeeler_collection

Recommended Citation

Keeler, Walter, "1945-03-28, Walter to Florence" (1945). Walter Keeler Second World War Correspondence Collection. 22.
https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/wkeeler_collection/22

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Walter Keeler Second World War Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

1945-03-28, Walter to Florence

Keywords

correspondence, Florence Mesner, 1945, Tonopah, Los Angeles, romance, longing, love, loneliness, women at home, planes, aviation, navigation, weather, war work, women at work, food, furlough, leave, G.I., Glasses, food, blurred vision

Identifier

2016.134.w.r_022

T/Sgt. Walter Keeler - 36632626
42nd. Base Unit - Sqdn. "F"
T.A.A.F. Tonopah, Nevada

Free

AIR BASE BR.

Florence Mesner
118 South Virgil Avenue
Los Angeles 4, California

Tuesday Evening

Hello Dear:

Your letter yesterday told of your predicament at the theatre. This letter will let you know of my predicament today - although it isn't as funny as yours was. This morning I went to the eye clinic to be fitted for G. D. glasses. To fit me the sawbones, doctor to you, had to dilate my pupils. I've never had my pupils dilated so did not expect what happened to me. From the clinic I went directly for my mail and was so happy when the mail clerk handed me a blue envelope. But, lo and behold, when I tried to read it, it came out all blurred. I thought to myself that after eating show my eyes would be right again but I was sadly mistaken. I must have taken your letter out of its envelope to read about 40 times but still the same story - blurred. The fellows got a big kick out of me trying to read it every five minutes and offered to read it for me. Needless to say I wouldn't let them read it consequently I was in misery from 10:00 to 19:00 before I could make out enough to read it.

Sorry to hear you didn't get the program deal but never fear you may get something more lucrative. It's so sweet and wonderful for you not taking a Termination position until after my visit. I guess I must mean something to you at that. It is a great compliment Hear - thank you. My only wish is that I may justify your sacrifice to your satisfaction.

Please excuse the writing Hear as my eyes are still foggy and my head is beginning to ache ~~from~~ due to my eyes. In a few hours it will be Wednesday - on the quite, short arm tomorrow - and one more day closer to realization of my thoughts and desires. I'm trying to keep myself very busy so that the days pass that much faster. Weather around here is still too bad for anything but local flight.

"Good-night Darling" and the sweetest of dreams. Make them of me please!!

Longingly & Lovingly
Walter

[[Kristina Agopian 8/02/2017]]

[[Walter Keeler Correspondence

Letter #022]]

[[Page 1-Envelope]]

T/Sgt. Walter Keeler-36632626

Free

422nd Base Unit- Sqdn. "F"

[[text: AIR BASE BR.]]

T.A.A.F Tonopah, Nevada

[[image- black circular stamp:

TONOPAH NEV.

MAR 28

1 PM

1945]]

Florence Mesner

118 South Virgil Avenue

Los Angeles 4, California

Tuesday Evening

Hello Dear:

Your letter yesterday told of your predicament at the theatre. This letter will let you know of my predicament today – although it isn't so funny as yours was. This morning I went to the eye clinic to be fitted for G.I. glasses. To fit me the sawbones, doctor to you, had to dilate my pupils. I've never had my pupils dilated so did not expect what happened to me. From the clinic I went directly for my mail and was so happy when the mail clerk handed me a blue envelope. But, lo and behold, when I tried to read it, it came out all blurred. I thought to myself that after eating chow my eyes would be right again but I was sadly mistaken. I must have taken your letter out of its envelope to read about 40 times but still the same story – blurred. The fellows got a bid kick out of me trying to read it every five minutes and offered to read it for me. Needless to say I wouldn't let them read it consequently I was in

[[Page 3 – Letter]]

misery from 10:00 to 19:00 before I could make out enough to read it.

Sorry to hear you didn't get the program deal but never fear you may get something more lucrative.
It's so sweet and wonderful for you not taking a Termination position until after my visit. I guess I must mean something to you at that. It is a great compliment Dear – thank you. My only wish is that I may justify your sacrifice to your satisfaction.

Please excuse the writing Dear as my eyes are still foggy and my head is beginning to ache ~~from~~ due to my eyes. In a few hours it will be Wednesday – on the quite, short arm tomorrow – and one more day closer to realization of my thoughts and desires. I'm trying to keep myself very busy so that the days pass that much faster. Weather around here is still too bad for anything but local flight.

“Good-night Darling” and the sweet – est of dreams. Make them of me please!!

Longingly & Lovingly
Walter

