Dearest:

I'm really happy today, I got three letters in the mail. I'll answer all three letters first and then add my little bit on the end. But first I must tell you that the weather this week is wonderful and I am getting a nice sun-tan. I'll probably look like an Indian compared to your fair complexion. When I visit you I want you to spend a little time with me out in the sun so you too can get a glamor tan.

You're a hard working girl aren't you Dear? Biltmore, Bowl, Shrine, Hafford - what a gal I got. I hope to make your life less of a drudge some day and I hope it's soon too. One never knows does one? Yes Mom, I do have plans and they of course involve you and only you. I'd rather not have a "have to affair" but if it must be Dear it must. I can't really tell you in so many words how I feel about you but you must know that simply speaking "you are the one and only one - I Love You Only" It's so wonderful to know you care so much for me. I feel like a young kid riding high on a cloud - it's so wonderful.

I vision the future to be so grand loving each other no matter what other worldly circumstances interfere. It will be so nice to come home, my ^{love,} or shall I say our home, to my Mommy and have her make over me as I shall over her. So nice too when we do things together and possibly with someone else born out of our love. Let's make our dreams come true Moms.

A Cord tire is one of the best Dear but $35⁰⁰ is a stiff price to pay especially one that's been used. Try to get his price down. It would have been sold a long time ago if the price were right. Bargain with him and make sure the casing, inside the tire, has no breaks or has been vulcanized (patched).

Will say "Good-night you Darling Sleepy-head" and with all my love I am always

yours
Wally
