5-22-1918

Lindstadt Brothers First World War Correspondence Collection #31

Varnie (V.T.) T. Lindstadt

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/lindstadt_brothers_collection

Recommended Citation
Lindstadt, Varnie (V.T.) T., "Lindstadt Brothers First World War Correspondence Collection #31" (1918). Lindstadt Brothers First World War Correspondence Collection. 31.
https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/lindstadt_brothers_collection/31

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: First World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Lindstadt Brothers First World War Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.
Subject Terms
Robert Lindstadt; Varnie T. (V.T.) Lindstadt; May 22, 1918; World War I; World War One; World War, 1914 - 1918; United States; War and Civilization -- History -- 20th Century; United States. Army; United States. Army. Company E. Engineers; United States. Army. Infantry; Camp Devens (Mass.) -- History -- 20th Century; Fitchburg (Mass.) -- History -- 20th Century; Burlington (Ia. ) -- History -- 20th Century; Manufacturing industries United States; Women -- Employment -- United States; World war 1914 1918 -- War work -- United States

Keywords
correspondence, postal service, Camp Devens, Mass., May 1918, 1918, Y.M.C.A, Y.M.C.A Stationary, brother, family, United States, United States Army, army, engineers, infantry, American Flag, funds, money, wages, tobacco, sister, war work, women at war, weapons, industry, production, Red Cross, trains, automobiles, accident, youth, children, death, injury, job, employment, education, animals, recreation and entertainment, leisure, sport, draft, military draft, manpower, recruitment and enlistment, periodical, mobilization, love

Identifier
2014.160.w.r_Lindstadt_Brothers_worldwarone_1918-05-22_028

Copyright
The Center for American War Letters Archives promotes open access to its collections for "private study, scholarship, or research" subject to the intellectual property rights of others. Chapman University may not hold copyright or intellectual property rights to all items in the collections, and contents may be subject to restricted access or use. As a condition of accessing and using material from the Archives, you agree that you are responsible for obtaining all required consents of any copyright holder and to indemnify and hold the University harmless from and against any and all claims, losses, liabilities, and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, that may arise from any third party claims for copyright infringement, torts, or invasion of publicity or privacy rights. You further acknowledge and agree that photocopies or other reproductions may only be made with the University’s prior approval. Requests will be considered on a case by case basis and approval will be in the University’s sole discretion.

This letter is available at Chapman University Digital Commons: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/lindstadt_brothers_collection/31
Mr. Robert Lindstadt.
1101 Arch St.
Burlington Iowa.
Mr. Robert Lindstadt.

1101 Arch St.

Burlington Iowa.
Dear Bro.

I received your letter and was sure glad to hear from you. I am surprised that you folks got only one allotment [sic] in 3 months but I will get mine straightened out so do not worry. I heard from Amanda again and she sent me a bunch of smoking, and she is going to work at the Arsenal.

Say Rob I got my comfort fund the other day and it sure came in handy, a fellow can surely appreciate that fund when he needs it. Well Rob I read about that train and auto accident, in the Hawkeye that I got from Al Aspelmeyer and I sure was

Camp Devens Mass
May 22, 1918.
surprised to hear that it was them little girls. I guess there was some sorrow when that happened and they surely got my sympathy.

Well Rob I guess you will have plenty to do this Summer at least I hope so, and I sure wish you all the success in the world in your Course and in all you do.

Have you gone fishing yet? you want to take advantage of all the fishing you can [[superscript]] get [/superscript]] before they get you for you will learn to appreciate that sport after they get you. I hope they won’t get you, but it looks like they will need plenty more. I saw in the Hawkeye that Oscar Moehn was being held for service, They sure will take that sissiness out of him, for believe me this is sure a mans [sic] game.

[[underscore]] Say Rob, do not write any more until you hear from me [[/underscore]] so I will close for this time. with love. to all.        Your Bro

Varnie T. Lindstadt
Camp Devens, Mass.
May 22, 1918.

Dear Bro.

I received your letter and was sure glad to hear from you. I am surprised that you folks got only one allotment in 3 months but I will get mine straightened out so do not worry. I heard from Amanda again and she sent me a bunch of smoking, and she is going to work at the Arsenal.

Say Rob I got my comfort fund the other day and it sure came in handy, a fellow can surely appreciate that fund when he needs it. Will Rob I read about that train and auto accident in the Hawkeye that I got from Al Aspelmeier and I sure was surprised to hear that it was them little girls. I guess there was some sorrow when that happened and they surely got my sympathy.

Well Rob I guess you will have plenty to do this Summer at least. I hope so, and I sure wish you all the success in the world in your Course and in all you do.

Have you gone fishing yet? you want to take advantage of all the fishing you can before they get you. As you will learn to appreciate that sport after they get you. I hope they won't get you, but it looks like they will need plenty more. I saw in the Hawkeye that Oscar Mohn was being held for service. They sure will take that business out of him, for believe me this is sure a man game.

Say Rob, do not write anymore until you hear from me so I will close for this time with love to all.

Your Bro
Varrie T. Lindstad.