Dear Mum + Dad,

As you notice I don't know what day it is and this would be cause for concern if you didn't know that it is 0600 in the morning and it's lucky that I know who I am so early. The reason I'm up so early is to sign up for golf on Saturday, a weekly affair. And would you believe that this is a girl. I am third so you can see there are avid aficionados of the sport out here.

Last week was a very good one for me since I ended up with three A's a B and an B in lat. I guess the old brain is still functioning at a reasonable level. I hope I can continue to improve but that's a pretty high target to aim at.

About Christmas time, I get from about the 21st until the 7th of January and so I have made a plane reservation for the 21st to fly to New Jersey. I am going to stay down there until the 26th and then bring Keegan and the three kids up here to the Farm for as long as you will have us all. How does that sound? In your letter you said you would fly me back home and if so, the price of a ticket one way is $170-. How does the schedule sound.

I know that you want me home at Christmas but Meeza wants to have it for the kids at home in Dutch Neck st I am going to stay there to be with her. The day after isn't bad anyway.

How is Chris doing at school? Is he still taking special tutoring or whatever it is?
I sure don't understand why he can't apply himself.
It's just a matter of discipline.

I sure wish I could be home for Thanksgiving.
That is always the harbinger of Christmas and without it I just don't feel the same this time of year spirit. They don't seem to play up Thanksgiving out here which is typical of California. They sure make a big commercial thing out of Christmas though.

Sunday I am going to watch a Grand Prix at Laguna Seca which is right in Monterey.
I can't let Joan and Pat get ahead of me you know.

Well let me hear from you about the ticket and about everything in general.

Lots of love,
Russ
