Sweetheart:

Received another sweet letter today. Your phone call was wonderful and I enjoyed so much hearing your voice. I feel very despondent and sad Darling thinking of what you must have gone through Saturday. I should have phoned you Saturday night, maybe it would have helped. Darling I'm lost, I can't say the nice things I want to. Please try to understand.

I'm coming in as soon as I can Mon which is Sunday the 13th if the weather permits us to take off. If not I'll fly down the next available day. I want to be with you now but my hands are tied.

I'll never stop loving you as long as you love me too. Love me Moms and you will never have to worry about my love for you. Kiss me every night in your dreams Darling and think of me tenderly always. You are foremost and uppermost in my mind always.

My future concerns my moving soon and I believe within three months. I may be shipped closer, farther away or overseas or school. Wherever the big wheels, my superiors, go, I'm supposed to go with them. I hope it's closer to you.

Today I received the Kodachrome pictures and eighteen came out. Most of them are good especially the ones you wanted of the tree at you. I don't believe the pictures would get to you before I see you, if I mailed them, so I'll bring them along.

Will now say "Good-night Lovey" until I write you again tomorrow. I'm very tired after not much sleep last night but that doesn't stop me from loving you.

Faithfully
Wally
