Dearest Darling -

Hi Honey hows my wonderful wife and kids today.

Well, I see you didn't come up here. This morning we went to colors and then come back and stood by our bunks while the officer inspected our bunk. Then we dressed and went up to the office where we had personal inspection. Then we got our leave papers and left. I went in to Norfolk and got a room at the Navy YMCA.

Then I went over to Portsmouth and stopped off at the Marine Barracks to see if Otto was still there but he was shipped out about a week ago to Philadelphia so guess he'll be getting a ship very shortly. I saw Bob Wilkens there and we had dinner. Then he had to go get examined so I went over to the canteen and wrote a couple of letters.

after supper Bob came over to the canteen and we went to the show. When we got out it was so foggy and rainy you could hardly see 2 feet in front of you. We walked over by his barracks and stopped at a little stand where he bought a couple of sandwiches and milk. We took them upstairs and ate in one of the classrooms. We talked awhile and then I come over and hit the sack. But before I go to sleep I must tell you that I'm sure in love with you hon and I miss you so very much.

Well Dorking guess I better close for now so I'll be dreaming of you and kissing and loving

Dearest Darling -

Hi my sweet Honey. Do you know that I Love you.
Well I do and now in kidding.

I wish you were here or better still I wish I was there. That would suit me better. To be together in our home and grow up with the kids to enjoy them while they are still small. You know I like kids hon
in fact I'm one myself.

②

I know I have the most wonderful wife and kids in the world and I'm really thankful for it all. To me that's more important than a lot of other things that some people want. I know exactly what I want more than anything else how and that is YOU.

Well my sweet Darling - again I say nite nite Angel remember I Love you. I Love You. I Love you. More than anything else in the world. I wonder what makes you so sweet

③

Boy I could just eat you. Bet
it would sure be good too.

Kiss the kids and tell all the folks hello. Ill see ya.-
