Dear Folks:-

Received your letter dated July 15 yesterday. Your letter of July 12th, today.

Was very glad to hear that Ralph was getting along OK as yet I have received no answer to my letters but hope for the best. I am well, but the mud here is awful. I have given me a slight cold from getting wet feet.

I was very sorry to hear of the death of Frederick Unmack as I knew him very well. He went through high school with me. When I was training for wrestling at the club, his brother and myself used to put on forts quite often.
Dear [Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am in a state of near constant excitement and exhaustion, so it is quite difficult to write and perhaps this letter will end up being a bit haphazard. I am not sure if you have heard of [him/her], but you probably have heard of them in regards to the girls singing about me. Give them all my love and tell them that I would write, but that I am so busy strutting the floor that I hardly get time to breathe.

By the way, address my next letter like this: 10 L. Eng. A.P.O. 750. Amer. E. T.

This is a new order and I suppose it is to avoid loss of mail.

No other news, I will close with love.

P.S. Tell Clara that I received her letter and was very glad that she had not forgotten me. Send my love to Irene and the kids. Write often.

Yours,

Dear Folks:-

Received your letter dated July 15 yesterday & yours of fifth & twelveth today & was very glad to hear that Ralph was getting on OK as yet I have received no answer to my letters, but hope for the best. I am well, but the mud here is awful & has given me a slight cold from getting wet feet.

I was very sorry to hear of the death of Freddy Unmack as I knew him very well & went through high school with him. When I was training for wrestling at the club, his brother & myself used to put on bouts quite often & you probably heard me speak of him.

In regards to the girls asking about me, give them all my love & tell them that I would write, but that I am so busy straffing the huns that I hardly get time to breathe?

by the way address my next letter like this: W--- D---. Hdq. Co. 108 Engrs. A.P.O. 750. American E. F.

This is a new order & I suppose it is to avoid loss of mail.

No other news, I will close with love.

Wes.

P.S. Tell Clara I received her letter & was very glad that she has not forgotten me. Send my love to Irene & the kids. Write often.
