Dear Jack,

I received your letter this morning and your card yesterday. What's the matter are you getting of kind of lazy. or don't you think it is very important to answer letters. you got two letters from me and you didn't answer and then Sat. I only got a card and this morning you only wrote a very short letter as a matter of fact shorter then any I have ever written. don't tell me you haven't got time. Those sweet words don't mean a thing you know the old saying "action speaks louder than words" ^{it}

Boy it certainly is beginning to show. If you don't want to write, why don't you quit altogether. What are you trying to do - let me down by degrees?

As for my other letter I still think I'm right. So there is no use arguing - I'll close now as I have nothing more to say.
