8-24-1937

Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence #036

Evabel Bell

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection

Recommended Citation
Bell, Evabel, "Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence #036" (1937). Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence Collection. 36.
https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection/36
Mr. Jack Bell
51 Groveland St.
Oberlin, O.
Dear Jack,

I received your letter this morning and your card yesterday. What's the matter are you getting kind of lazy, or don't you think it is very important to answer letters. You got two letters from me and you didn't answer and then Sat. I only got a card and this morning you only wrote a very short letter as a matter of fact shorter then any I have ever written. Don't tell me you haven't got time. Those sweet words don't mean a thing you know the old saying action speaks louder than words.

Boy it certainly is beginning to
If you don't want to write, why don't you quit altogether. What are you trying to do - let me down by degrees? As for my other letter, I still think she's right. Or there is no use arguing.

I'll close now as I have nothing more to say.

Evelen
Mr. Jack Bell
51 Groveland St.
Oberlin
O.
12739 Linwood Ave
Detroit, Mich
Dear Jack,

I received your letter this morning and your card yesterday. What's the matter are you getting kind of lazy. or don't you think it is very important to answer letters. You got two letters from me and you didn't answer and then Sat. I only got a card and this morning you only wrote a very short letter as a matter of fact shorter then any I have ever written. don't tell me you haven't got time. Those sweet words don't mean a thing you know the old saying “Action speaks louder than words”. Boy it certainly is begginning to show. If you don’t want to write, why don’t you quit altogether. What are you trying to do – let me down by degrees? As for my other letter I still think I’m right. So there is no use arguing – I’ll close now as I have nothing more to say.

Evabel