My Dear Robert:-

I suppose you think I have forgotten my promise to you, but indeed I have not, have often thought of you but have been quite busy getting in order up here. I sure do like Des. Ewinges very much we are simply treated by treated right on the main road to Camp n year ago 20 days since Varnie & Clarence started to work for us and I just think when I look at them today. The way they have changed a great deal about the way and I sincerely hope what they want will return back home safe and sound. So do you really mean to say that you have to go in this next draft next in June it all mostly likely.
I will be up here
as we expect to stay at least for another month. Robert, how is the work coming at home and the screens
finished as yet, when the work is done will you send your bill to Mrs. Schraun, so that you will get your check before you leave.
And we sure thank you for your work done for us. And now Robert I shall be more than Glad to hear from you.
Your friend, Anna E. Evolge
My Dear Robert:–

I suppose
you think I have forgotten my promise to you, but indeed I have not, have often thought of you
but has been quite busy going in order up here. I sure do like Des Moines very much.
we are simply beauti[ful] ly located, right on the main road to Camp
Dodge.

Well Robert – what have you heard from the boys. Have the [sic] landed

“over-there” yet. Have not heard anything from

Varnie since about

middle of May. In one of the letters I had

from Mrs. Schramm

she asked me if I had

Varnie. I was just thinking this mor – ning that it is just a year ago to-day

since Varnie [&] Clarence started to work for us.

and just think where they are today. We sure did think a great deal about the boys.

and I sincerely hope that they soon will return back home

safe and sound.

So do you really mean

to say that you have to go in this next

draft now in June.

Well mostly likely
I will be up here as we expect to stay at least for another month. Robert how is the work coming at home are the screens finished as yet, when the work is done will you send your bill to Mrs. Schramm, so that you will get you [sic] check before you leave.
