Dear Jack,

I got got your letter this morning and I really don't know what to say. The letter you wrote was so, well I don't know, But somehow I just can't seem to know what to say.

I don't know whether to say that I'm glad or sad, that you have told me what you did for your letter. It seems so strange to hear you say that you are going to become Jewish. I haven't gone out with anyone else ever since you left. I just couldn't bring my self to go out with anyone else.

The reason I thought that you were getting tired of me was because your letters were getting shorter & shorter all the time and you never.

seems to tell me anything. In your last letter you told me more than you told me all the time you were writing at least almost all the time.

Isabel wrote me and told me that Bing is working in Cleveland. She even told me the address. I wonder if he misses Isabel. She says she misses him like the devil. Gosh I imagine so after seeing each other 2 nights a week. I bet they will get married by the end of next year. I wonder if Bing is still so crazy about her. What does he say?

you can't see any Rabbi on Labor day when you come in. Because you see that is our New Year's and they will all be busy.

But, listen, dear, why don't you write to Rabbi Kramer of Elvira. He is very broadminded. Ask him all about it.

Don't tell him who you are going with.
Just tell him some girl from Cleveland.

He lives with Sam Wasserman, I believe any way they will forward it to him.
Ask him if possible to write to you if not you will come and see him. Ask him how much it will cost. Look up in an Elyria Telephone book what the address of Sam Wasserman is and that will be the Rabbi's. and put on it C. Wasserman, and then put in the letter all the information you want to know. I think he will help us.
But remember don't tell him who I am.
Tell him right now you are working and getting $25 a week but very soon you expect to Cleveland and get a better a better job.
Tell him the girl has a mother & father and one sister. Then you see he won't be able connect you with anyone in Elyria. And be sure you don't show him a picture of me.
Tell him you found out about him when he spoke in Oberlin and that you'd thought he was just the person. Tell him that my name is Arline Schwarty if he asks you. But don't tell him unless he asks you. Then write and tell me what he says. As I am very anxious to know. Write it Ben. and he will get it Mon. morning.

Well I must close. I'm not going to school to-day. I'm still waiting for the job. I hope it comes very soon.

your,

Evelyn
