Dear Mr. Allen:

Yesterday I received a letter from my good friend Joseph Hammer in Las Vegas. His letter included an order for a copy of my book "Facing the Music", with a request that I send it to you. I take great pleasure in doing so, and have also taken the liberty of autographing the book both to you and to Ms. Jayne Meadows. I hope you both enjoy reading it.

I take it as a fortunate omen that Joe Hammer's request arrived when it did, because I have been wanting to invite you and Ms. Meadows as my honored guests at our forthcoming Mandarin Allegro Ball on May 26 at the Beverly Wilshire Grand Ballroom.

Enclosed in this letter is a formal invitation and some descriptive material. In speaking to your secretary this morning, I learned that your wife is returning to Los Angeles on Monday. I would be most grateful if you could let me have your response, and hopefully your acceptance at that time. I am sending a separate note to Ms. Meadows and greatly look forward to seeing you on the 26th. (Incidentally, I remember with pleasure my television interview with you some years ago.)

Yours cordially,

Henri Temianka
