Dearest:

No letter from you today but am sure you've written so in all probabilities will receive one tomorrow. No doubt you too get lonesome when you don't hear from me as I do when the mailman becomes a little negligent getting your mail to me. It's been really cold since I got back especially right now. We also have high winds, about 40 miles per hour. Wish it would get as warm as you have it in Los Angeles. In a few hours I must go to work and already I'm tired. This night shift makes one very tired due to lack of sleep and interruption of normal living conditions. I've been working pretty hard too. Could get a hop this Saturday to L.A. but must give it to my assistant as he deserves it and I just got back from a three day pass.

I'm waiting to get word of how you came out with our friend. I guess he will be a WOL again as he is past due on his pass today. I sincerely hope you had no contact whatsoever with him. Not for jealousy sake but for yours only. He could make your life difficult for a day or so you know. Nevertheless Darling nothing will come between us as I know you are honest and trustworthy. Just be your sweet self and my Moons. It's a deal!

See, Baby but I miss you so terribly. Seems to get worse after every visit. You must be a witch to have me so under your spell. Keep that spell over me always Dear, I want to be spellbound.

Take care of yourself Dearest especially your health. Come home early Saturday evening Honey because I will call you on the phone.
Love and kisses to you Darling

Always your
Wally
