Mr. Jack Bell

51 Groveland St

Oberlin

O.

Dearest.

I got your very sweet letter this morning. My, my aren't you just the sweetest boy. I ask you some sensible questions and what do I get for an answer - a lotta begrudging answers. Don't you think I'd kind of like to know the old home town news.

As for spending my last dime I do have to have money for carfare. I don't want you to send me money all the time. I just wanted some stamps. But, honey, what am I doing sitting here arguing with the light of my life. Oh dear me, sometimes I do get terrible. But don't mind me. After all I'm just the girl friend.

my, my aren't you just the model boy. I'll bet your mother and all the neighbors are mighty proud of their nice boy. You are much better than you were when I was away.

O darling I'm going to be so very very glad see you and be so very very sad when you go away. Won't it be wonderful when you come here to live and we will be together almost all the time. Except of course when you are hunting for a job and eating + sleeping.

I'll always have some kind of an anniversary of some kind and darling "Every day I'll fall in love all over again with you."

you should have hawled me out. I've been kind of a dud, haven't I? But darling remember, down deep in my heart I'll always love you.

Doesn't it seem funny that both Bing + I should go away about at the same. Then pretty soon you'll be going away. And then maybe Isabel will go away.

Roy + Betty are away and pretty soon Ida will come to Detroit. And then almost our whole gang will be gone.
Isn't it funny how a group of people
just broke all up.

I went to the show yesterday and
and saw two of the swellest pictures
"a Star is born" and "mountain justice".
and during the whole picture I was thinking about you.

Well sweet I must hurry cause I have to get to school.

yours,

Isabel
