

Chapman University

Chapman University Digital Commons

---

William Vasos Second World War Correspondence Collection

CAWL Archives: Second World War

---

3-5-1945

1945-03-05, Irene to William

Irene Vasos

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/wvasos\_collection

---

Recommended Citation

Vasos, Irene, "1945-03-05, Irene to William" (1945). William Vasos Second World War Correspondence Collection. 41.
https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/wvasos\_collection/41

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in William Vasos Second World War Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

---

1945-03-05, Irene to William

Keywords

U.S.A., U.S. Soldiers, postal service, correspondence, wife, husband, marriage, women at home, love, Carroll, IA, mother, father, children, family, clothing, culture, recreation and entertainment, leisure, homesickness, romance, coming home, loneliness, leave, government, health and sickness, cold weather, gifts, uniform, insignia, newspaper, humor, France, war wounds, shrapnel, injury, sex, alcohol

Identifier

2015.123.w.r._Vasos_worldwartwo_1945-03-05_016.pdf

March. 5. 1945
This is Mon. nite.

My Dearest Darling Bill:

I got your letter of Friday today telling me you were in Norfolk. So you had a 3 day pass. That breaks the monotony some doesn't it. Did you go to Roanoke. You didn't run into any silk stockings at the "Rayon Mills" did you. I guess we will be going bare legged before long if we can't get any. My darling I wish I could have been in Norfolk waiting for you. I imagine we wouldn't have noticed the chess crowd or the places. Look why couldn't you be closer so I could come to see you, I'm telling you this separation is just long enough for my part. Tell me about your leave. I'll see it thru your eyes darling as that is how I want to live. Darling, I love you. Man the 9 or 11th will be here before long, I wonder what it will bring. How will you know much before it starts. Let me know if you can. Maxine says that Moon can take his leave when "he" wants it. All he does is take it to the Battalion Office and then Regimental Office and if it passes there, the leave is his. He knew a month or so before he got it. Just get here darling is all I ask. There are so many happy moments in store for you.

I

We had a little trouble today. Dad and I both woke up with cramps. So he didn't go to school. It didn't stay with you all the time. One sure gets a good cleaning out. I don't know how many times Dad went. That is sort of going around. Boy it sure gives a cramp when you have it. He called Pop tonight and told him all about it. He called the first time around 4:30 and they didn't answer, but Dad would keep telling the operator 642-J. I finally convinced him. So he called around 5. Pop was alone as Emma went to help her mother. He said he got your letter. Now you talked about Dad and his tricks. He said "Well Grandpa I can't come down down tonight cause I got the cramps.

We & Gady sure had a day today.
Don didn't go outside, but I think I'll read him in the morning.
It turned so cold here and it is moisty. I do believe we will have snow for a while. Remember the last leave, how it snowed & everything. Say how before I forget, I hate to ask you, but how would it be possible to get a pair of stripes for Don. I mislaid them that you sent before. I might have them some place, but he is so proud of anything Navy.
I had them down to the house and after that I just haven't seen them.
He has a insignia on his over coat.
I want to get a Navy cap for him for spring. He gets a kick out of Oed Brant in the funny paper, cause he is a sailor, Judy even recognizes it as daddy. Patsy sure likes her new school. She really jumps in that swing now. You ought to see her put her hand out to say (hi).

Smart girl. I keep asking Judy what she will do when daddy comes home, she just looks, she can't figure it out.

I heard that Mary Garrison is quite worried. The camp where Jiggs was is being closed. So he doesn't know what will take place. I talked to Mrs.
Fee from Breda she used to be Rita Rahm, her husband is overseas, and he wrote that the war would be over with in (6) weeks and that he didn't expect to see France. That sounds

Good I ain't it. If it was only true.
Say how remember that young war wife Pop had working for him first they had that little girl.
She talked to her husband coming from overseas, that he is going to be in a hospital. He had 16 pieces of shrapnel and that one piece is so close to his brain they can't operate. His name is Florian Wittrock. But I guess we will hear a lot of that yet. No one has heard anything about Gerhard Hammer yet. You read where Vir Stange got married. Times do change. Do you hear from Leo? I haven't written Tom yet, but I want to.
I have been busy washing curtains for a certain someone's home. coming. <sup>4</sup> Guess who! I can't hardly wait. Just wait until you explain to Dew why he can't sleep with us.

That's up to you my sweet.

The folks are O.K. Dad got me one — quart of whiskey already for your leave. I have a qt of gin left too. Dick wrote Alma today to bring a bottle of liquor as that Texaco was so dry you couldn't buy it any place. So she is. She has her ticket bought. I wish I could be going out to live with my honey. Dick is coming home with her in April. That is his overseas leave. She is excited and yet she isn't. That is how I feel too, thinking of the time when we will have to say Goodbye again.

I am O.K as far as physical health is concerned but I miss you so very much in more ways than one. My sweet, my one and only. I love you.
Don - Judy - Patsey all love their good daddy.

Well Dad, I hope you got back to camp alright and happy dream sweetheart maybe we won't have to dream too long any more, if my hubby gets home soon "I hope".
My every dream is of you. And you are as sweet as you always were. You're very wonderful.

Say how, I'll let you sew on some buttons around here. 'Ha' 'Ha'. I darling we will wait on your hand & foot.

Remember I love you and always will Don Judy Patsey Always yours XXXX XXXX XXXXX +XX Irene XXXXX

[[Vasos Correspondence #16]]

[[Page 1 - Letter]]

March 5 - 1945
This is Mon. nite.

My Dearest Darling Bill:

I got your letter of Friday today telling me you were in Norfolk. So you had a 3 day pass. That breaks the monotony some doesn't it. Did you go to Roanoke. You didn't run into any silk stockings at the "Rayou Mills" did you. I guess we will be going bare legged before long if we can't get any. My darling I wish I could have been in Norfolk waiting for you. I imagine we wouldn't have noticed the chans[[?]] crowd or the places. Gosh why ycouldn't you be closer so I could come to see you, I'm telling you this separation is just long enough for my part. Tell me about your leave. I'll see it thru your eyes darling as that is how I want to live. Darling. I love you. Man the 9 or 11th will be here before long, I wonder what it will bring. How will you know much before it starts. Let me know if you can. Maxine says that Moon can take his leave when "he" wants it. All he does is take it to the Battalion office and then Regimental Office and if it passes those, the leave is his. He knew a month or so before he got it. Just get here darling is all I ask. There are so many happy moments in store for you.

[[Page 2- Letter]]

[[Page 3- Letter]]

[[underline]] 2 [[/underline]]

We had a little trouble today. Don and I both woke up with cramps. So he didn't go to school. It didn't stay with you all the time. One sure gets a good cleaning out. I don't know how many times Don went. That is sort of going around. Boy it sure gives a cramp when you have it. He called Pop tonite and told him all about it. He called the first time around 4:30 and they didn't answer, but Don would keep telling the operator 642 - J. I finally convinced him. So he called around 5. Pop was alone as Emma went to help her Mother. He said he got your letter. How you talked about Don and his tricks. He said " Well Grandpa I can't come down down tonite cause I got the cramps.

[[Page 4- Letter]]

He + Judy sure had a day today.
Don didn't go outside, but I think I'll send him in the morning.
It turned so cold here and it is nasty. I do believe we will have some for awhile Remember the last leave how it snowed + everything. Say how before I forget, I hate to ask you, but hon would it be possible to get a pair of stripes for Don. I mailed them that you sent before. I might have them some place, but he
is so proud of anything Navy.
I had them down to the house, and
after that I just haven't seen them.
He has a insignia on his over coat.
I want to get a Navy cap for him

[[Page 5- Letter]]

[[underline]] 3 [[/underline]]

for spring. He gets a kick out of Ned Brant in the funny paper, cause he is a sailor. Judy even recognizes
it as daddy. Patsy sure likes her new shoes. She really jumps in that swing now. You ought to see her put her hand out to say (hi).
Smart girl. I keep asking Judy what
she will do when daddy comes home,
she just looks, she can't figure it out.

I heard that Mary Harrison is quite worried. The camp where Jiggs was is being closed. So he doesn't know what will take place. I talked to Mrs.
Fee from Breda she used to be Rita
Rahm[[?]] her husband is overseas,
and he wrote that the war would be
over within (6) weeks and that he didn't expect to see France. That sounds

[[Page 6- Letter]]

good doesn't it. If it was only true.
Say hon remember that young war wife Pop had working for him, first that had that little girl.
She talked to her husband coming
from overseas, that he is going to be in a hospital. He had 16 pieces of shapnel and that one piece in so close to his brain they can't operate. His name is Florian Wittrock. But I guess we will hear
a lot of that yet, No one has heard anything about Gehard Hammers, yet. You read where Vin Stange got married. Times do change. Do you hear from Leo? I haven't
written Tom yet, but I want to.
I have been busy washing curtains,
for a certain someone's Home -

[[Page 7- Letter]]

[[underline]] 4 [[/underline]]

Coming. Guess who! I can't hardly wait. Just wait until you explain to Don why he can't sleep with us.
That's up to you my sweet.

The folks are O.K. Dad got me one quart of whisky already for your leave. I have a qt of
gin left too. Dick wrote Alma
today to bring a bottle of liquor as that Texas was so dry you couldn't buy it any place. So she
is. She has her ticket bought. I wish I could be going out to live with my honey. Dick is coming home with her in April. That is his
overseas leave. She is excited and
yet she isn't. That is how I feel
too, thinking of the time when we will have to say Goodby again.

[[Page 8- Letter]]

I am O.K. as far as physical health
is concerned but I miss you so
very much in more ways than one. My sweet, my one and only. I love you.
Don – Judy – Patsy all love their good daddy.

Well Bill, I hope you got back to camp alright and happy dreams sweetheart may be we won't have
to dream too long anymore, if
my hubby gets home soon. "I hope."

My every dream is of you. And you are as sweet as you always
were. You're very wonderful.

Say hon. I'll let you sew on some buttons around here! Ha! Ha! Darling we will wait on you hand + foot.
Remember I love you and Always Will

Don Judy Patsy Always Yours XXXX XXXX XXXXXX XXX Irene XXXXX