Lady:::

Naughty girl! I kicked the slats out of my cradle when I heard that one. It is as old as the hills. I'm afraid you can't corrupt me as I believe I've heard most all of them. Some day I'll tell you better ones than the one you sent me.

It made me feel wonderful getting your letter today. As I told you last night, I won't expect you to write daily if you feel too tired or are too busy. Because, or if, you miss writing won't make me think less of you, I'll understand.

Soon I must go to show and then to work so will close this letter with an "I Love You" and hoping I can be with you Saturday night. Love and kisses Darling

Your Sweetheart
