Dearest Darling-

Hi Honey how are you this evening. I have been thinking of you all day and dreaming about how nice it would be to be home with you. It looks like it won't be so very long now honey.

We had the radio on this morning and heard the news that Germany had surrendered. They didn't confirm it but they were pretty certain it was true though. There is going to be a special news broadcast in the morning at 9 o'clock so that will probably be final. Boy how it seems like I'm getting a little closer to home now.

I had the afternoon off so I stripped off everything but my short bottoms and laid out on the walk in back of our hut and had a nice sun bath. I got tanned up quite a bit. It sure felt good too. It has been pretty cool up until today. Maybe our warm weather has arrived. I bought a new pair of whites and ironed them this afternoon.

"After chow went to the show. Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe" was the name of it with Betty Grable and Dick Haymes. It's O.K. if you like musicals and is all in technicolor.

After the show, went over to the canteen and got a pint of ice cream and came over to the office and listened to the radio and read the paper.

It is now 11 o'clock so think I will go down to the hut and hit my sack (someday it will be with you hon). oh happy day. Write Write my Darling remember I Love you. I Love you. I Love you. Forever and Ever.

Yours Only.
