Dearest:

I'm writing this letter in the town of Tonopah U.S.O. Really I am not a U.S.O. commando it's just that this is the best place in town to write a letter. This morning we were weathered in again on our prospective trip to Fresno. I'm thoroughly disgusted and disappointed so, being dressed, decided to come to town and see a movie. It is now 1500 and the movie doesn't start until 1900 so will spend four hours catching up on my correspondence. I'm a bad boy Mom - I haven't written you yesterday. The reason is I was very busy all day long and naturally I expected to be with you tonight. Please forgive me for not writing yesterday, I'll make up for it next week. Incidentally I haven't received a letter from you for the last three days.

I miss you so very much Dear especially today when in my imagination I had you in my arms. I pictured tonight with you cuddling in my arms and saying sweet things to me. Anyway Darling I hope to be with you on the End. of June, that is, if we don't get weathered in again. Dog-gonnit Dear I wish I were capable of writing long chatty letters. I feel guilty of neglect when my letters are short but if you could know what a trial it is for me to write. Honey I am too angry, because of not making the trip to Fresno, to write many endearing terms so please take my disappointment and anger as love.

Lovingly
Wally
