

Chapman University

Chapman University Digital Commons

---

William Vasos Second World War
Correspondence Collection

CAWL Archives: Second World War

---

6-5-1945

1945-06-05, Melvin to Irene

Melvin Hausman

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/wvasos\_collection

---

Recommended Citation

Hausman, Melvin, "1945-06-05, Melvin to Irene" (1945). William Vasos Second World War Correspondence Collection. 48.

https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/wvasos\_collection/48

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in William Vasos Second World War Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

---

1945-06-05, Melvin to Irene

Keywords

U.S.A., U.S. Soldiers, correspondence, comradery, postal service, love, Germany, family, children, post-war plans, loneliness, husband, wife, romance, thoughts on the enemy, German soldiers, Germans, Japanese, racial slur, health and sickness, medical treatment, Axis Powers, death, starvation, political leaders, Nazi party, landscape, recreation and entertainment, motion pictures, leisure, Russians, Polish, superstition, food, religion, Christianity

Identifier

2015.123.w.r._Vasos_worldwartwo_1945-06-05_017.pdf

June 5, 1945

Dear Irene + Family:

But you think that I have forgotten about you haven't you. Well I haven't. We have been pretty busy trying to get this country straightened out that Hitler has left in such a mess. He has people here in Germany from every country over here and now we have to try to get them back to their own country. A lot of them are sick and have to be looked after. Some so thin and poor from his starvation they can't make the trip home. Most people will never realize how messed up that old fool had this country over here. Wonder where he is? I'll bet he still isn't dead as they claim him to be. He is more than likely on the other side of the pond helping the the jag leader to holdout longer.

How are you & your little family getting along? Sure hope O. K. Do you still hear from Bert everyday or don't he have time to write everyday? I am feeling O. K. just so damn lonesome for my precious family.

Thanks a lot for the swell picture of little Pat. She is as cute as a doll.

We are on the west side of the Rhine now. Crossed it on the Emile Pile bridge. We are close to Bingen right along side of the Mosel river. The boys do a lot of fishing. We are really in the hillst woods. We set up on the side of a big hill right outside of the town all by ourselves. Guess this used to be a place where they raised the Hitler youths. Did you know that they gave a medal to the German girls & women who gave

- 3 -

two children or more to the government.
Isn't that awful that people would do any thing like that. One of the fellows found one of the Medals. They should take all of them and do with them as the Germans did with the Poles & Russian and all their slave labor. But they would really turn a different tune than.
They have large vineyards up here and a lot of cherry trees so I have sure been giving the church hell.

Well I am hope this finds you in the best of health. May God bless you & your family & keep you well. Take care of yourself & family.
Write when you can. Go down and see my boy.

Lot of Love
M

[[Vasos Correspondence #17]]

[[Page 1 - Letter]]

June 5, 1945

Dear Irene + Family!

Bet you think that I have forgotten about you haven't you. Well I haven't. We have been pretty busy trying to get this country straightened out that Hitler has left in such a mess. He has people here in Germany from every country over here and now we have to try to get them back to their own country.
A lot of them are sick and have to be looked after. Some so thin and poor from his starvation they can't make the trip home. Most people will never realize how micked up that old fool had this country over here. Wonder where he is? I'll bet he still isn't dead as they claim him to be. He is more than likely on the other side of the pond helping the

[[Page 2 - Letter]]

-2-

the Jap leader to hold out longer.

How are you + your little family getting along? Sure hope O.K. Do you still hear from Bill everyday or don't he have time to write everyday? I am feeling O.K. Just so darn lonesome for my precious family.

Thanks a lot for the swell picture of little Pat. She is as cute as a doll.

We are on the west side of the Rhine now. Crossed it on the Ernie Pile bridge. We are close to Burger right along side of the Mosel river. The boys do a lot of fishing. We are really in the hills + woods. We set up on the side of a big hill right outside of the town all by ourselves. Guess this used to be a place where they raised the Hitler youths. Did you know that they gave a medal to the German girls + woman who gave

[[Page 3 - Letter]]

-3-

two children or more to the government.
Isn't that awfull that people would do anything like that. One of the fellows found one of the medals. They should take all of tham and do with tham as the Germans did with the Poles + Russians and all their slave labor. Bet they would really hum a different tune than.
They have large vinyards up here and a lot of cherry tree so I have sure been giveing the cherries
hell.

Well Irene hope this finds you in the best of health. May God bless you + your family + keep you
well. Take care of yourself + family.
Write when you can. Go down and see my honey.

Lots of Love
Mel