Sweetheart:

Had quite a rugged day, I'm tired. I think you can tell by my scribbling. One ray of sunshine was your sweet letter, sweeter each time I receive one. It's a shame your house cleaning went to waste when you tried so hard to please me. You're a Dear! Yes, I do have a different attitude than when I first met you. I do trust you and I know you know that I do. I am and always will be jealous of the one I love.

Even though I haven't known you very long I do know you've changed. You are very different from the first two three day passes

I spent with you. At one time, in my opinion, you were a little hard and disillusioned ~~about~~ life itself. You are so much sweeter and dearer now looking at life in a brighter mood. Stay that way Darling.

I too want you close to me and smuggle you close every night. We must wait Dear but wouldn't it be wonderful. It's nice dreaming of you Darling

your dreamer
