Dear Mr. Temianka,

I have enclosed two scores recently published by C. F. Peters. Also, I have included recordings of two commissioned works for chorus and orchestras performed in 1965, which were taped during their concert performances. Of course the recorded sound and the level of performance of these two works is not up to the standards of the enclosed recording of "Shakespearean Concerto", which was recorded in a studio, but they do give a good idea of the nature of the work.

As of now the two choral works have not been engraved. But, if you are interested in seeing the scores, C. F. Peters will be happy to send you photostatic copies for study purposes.

I wish you continued success in your music-making with the California Chamber Symphony and send my best for the coming season.

Sincerely,

David Amram
