Mr. Henri Temianka
2915 Patricia Ave.
Los Angeles 64, Calif.

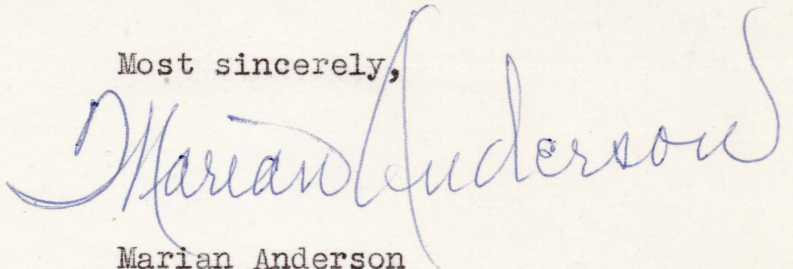

Dear Mr. Temianka:

Thank you so much for your letter. Our regret is deep that things are still too uncertain to make a definite commitment and there is every reason to believe we cannot be sure of availability until next summer. And if our schedule continues to be as crowded as it is now, it seems the summer necessarily will be spent in rest and vacation.

It seems many of the things we most would enjoy doing are denied us in this busy life; and we are keenly sorry that our reply to you must be the one above. We realize you wish to start on your project and any further waiting for the very doubtful possibility of our participation would be most unfair.

Again, my most sincere thanks and warmest best wishes for the success of this most worthwhile project !

Most sincerely,

Marian Anderson
