Dearest Darling-

Hi Hon well how's my little working girl tonite. I received 2 letters from you today telling me about it. I see you made out pretty good. How many nights do you have to work?

We'll got back from my 71 this morning about 7:30 and hit the sack for a couple hours as I wasn't due in till 9:30. That old train ride sure is tiresome. I'm going to bed early tonight. It should be good sleeping tonite as it is cool and is raining a little. There's supposed to be a hurricane moving in this way tonite but the paper says it will blow out before reaching here.

We just got some sandwiches and I have the coffee on so will have a lunch and then hit the sack.

Judy must be awful anxious for Daddy to get home, always asking if I'm there yet. Hope she continues to remember me. I guess Don's all excited about his trip too. Tell him I'll make him some more pictures if he wants them. How's Pat does she attempt to crawl yet and say how's she coming with her teething.

I enjoyed the letter you received from Mel. I'll have to write him. I received a letter from Babe today and she said Chuck expects to come home around the first of August. I'll have to write him so that if he does he can stop off up here a couple of days. He could stay right here on the Base with me. I believe it's almost 3 years since I've seen him.

Well Honeybunch. I must go again. See you later. Nite nite hon and remember I Love you. I Love you.

I Love you.

Forever and Ever
