Mr. Jack Bell

Oberlin, Ohio

Dear Jack,

Now this time I'm really mad at you. And you should know why. Gosh my letter was short but your letter certainly took the cake. And even last night over the telephone you acted kind of queer. Well I'm just going to pay you back and write you a very short letter. I suppose you don't realize it but every type written page is like two written pages and I wrote three typed pages so that is like about five written pages. And you didn't even like my poem. You didn't even say anything about it and when I asked you about it over the telephone you did not even believe that I wrote it myself. So in your next letter you had better do some pretty tall explaining because ~~XX~~ I'm pretty angry.

As Ever,

Evelyn
