Dearest,

I got your letter and really I wasn't even excepting one. I think it is all explained by now. I imagine you and me both were kind of mad or scared or something. when I got no letter from you on Wed. I thought for sure your you had found someone new. Maybe I'm just fooling myself because I know that you really and truly love me and that you always will love me, Huh Honey?

But now that is all explained I may as well go on with my letter. Honey why don't you start writing your letter your letters in the evening, you will have more time and you could write a whole lot more. Gosh I wish you were here so we would have no more arguments we never have any when we are together do we? And if we did they were so small that we made up almost as soon as we started. But it was always you that made up, you never wanted fights, Did you Sweet? You always gave in to me just so there should not be any fights. I am an old meanie huh Darling, but you still love me don't you? Any way I hope you always will even if I am an old meanie. But sometimes I can be kind of sweet and be just as nice as can be. But Honey, no matter what I'll always love you no matter what happens. You will always remember that wont you? You see there may be times when you may doubt if I love you but always remember that I'll always love you no matter what.

I just got a letter from a law firm and they told me that they wanted to see me about being a witness to Mr. Summers' will. I guess I shall get a nice crisp new dollar bill just for signing my name to his will. And is that nice new crisp dollar bill going to come in handy. So Honey, don't you dare send me any money this week. And don't send me no more money because you have to have your money. And I'm telling you, you'll be mighty glad you saved all your money.

I wish I could see the old house just once more and we could go back there and just spend one more night there. Remember on our Anniversy how we spent the whole night there and no one was there and you were afraid to leave me because you said there were railroad bums and you got me all scared. Honey, that's all I live for now is those memories and I sometimes I try to look into the future but some how I can't seem to see much. I Always seem to see you and I some where together away from everyone starting all over again with no one to interfere in our lives. Do you ever think about that too? Or do you have other thoughts?

Do you know where Billy Borac is working or if he is living in the same place? Who was telling you this? Is he still living with Melva? I wonder how much she cheats on him now? I'll bet thir som is a big boy already Yes, Dear, I am going on a diet. Oh no it is not a strenuous one. In fact I eat almost the same except that I have cut out chocalate milk and I eat less of every thing than I did before.

Zella and Rubie are still in the Old Gold contest but I haven't typed any of the answers for them. Because they haven't any answers. Rubie was supposed to take back this typewriter about a week ago and he kept forgetting to take it back. and we still haven't taken it back.

Gee, Honey, I've got such a bad stomach ache I can't even see straight, so I hope you wont mind if I close do you?

I love you very very very much, Sweetheart.

Your own,
