1919, Wesley to Family

Keywords
U.S.A., U.S. Postal Service, Soldiers, Post Card, correspondence, Luxembourg, Foreign Occupation, Western Front, civilians, military occupation, landscapes, sight-seeing, cold weather, Echternach

Identifier
2014.160.w.r_ Diedrich _worldwarone_missing-missing-missing_005

Comments
An exact date is not known for this letter. The year listed is an estimation and may not be accurate.

This letter is available at Chapman University Digital Commons: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/wfdiedrich_collection/56
a very natural picture of the lay of this country. The hills are very pretty at this time of year as they are usually so covered.
Diedrich Correspondence #5-Postcard

[Front]

Vianden, GroBherzogtum Luxemburg

(image- sepia photograph of a small town among rolling hills and many trees, with dozens of buildings, homes, and castle ruins atop the tallest hill.)

[Back]

(left side) A very natural picture of the lay of the country
(right side) a light layer of snow

The hills are very pretty at this time of year as they are usually [[covered?]] with

(image- bottom left: insignia, “JRW”)

[vertical text, center- Kunstverlag J.R. Waeger, Echternach. cliche bach, vianden]