Dear Neil,

Upon my return to Los Angeles, following our pleasant reunion in San Francisco, I found your letter of June 21st, together with the impressive brochures describing the Banff Centre's ambitious programs for 1979 and 1980.

As I stated verbally, you may count on my support in any way that you may consider useful. I have no immediate suggestions to offer but, in the days and weeks ahead, shall bear in mind your primary concern with regard to the first class of outstanding young artists to be enrolled for this September.

With every good wish and kindest regards to all of you,

Yours most cordially,

Henri Temianka

P.S. Please tell Ken Murphy how pleased I was to see him again.
