Dear Henri,

Thank you so much for your letter of August 18 in which you express your very sincere feelings about your experiences in Banff. During these past four years Banff has benefitted greatly from your presence and I must say that on a personal level you have helped immeasurably in my musical education. Your artistry, your great fund of musical knowledge, your close connections with the great musical personalities of our day have all enriched my life and the lives of those around me here to an immeasurable degree.

Our association has also had a very real human dimension and you occupy a significant place on the roster of "great people I know and have known". You and Emmy care about a great many things that Marjorie and I care about and in very similar ways. You are both very refreshing lovable people and we count ourselves lucky to be in touch with you as we have these past four summers. It is my fond hope that the designing of our programmes for the summer and for year-round will be such that we can include your talents on our roster of music resources. I know that we can't do this in 1978 but do let's keep our lines of communication open on a continuing basis.

With much affection for you and Emmy,

As ever,

Neil M. Armstrong
