Mr. Charles Bishop
Hotel Jerome
Aspen, Colorado

Dear Chuck:

Emmy and I have been thinking and talking often of the lovely Bishop family and Danny frequently inquires about Chippy Boy. We are all looking forward with great pleasure to our return to Aspen, where we expect to be in residence this year from July 3 to August 27.

In view of this extended stay it would probably be wise for us to secure a house or cottage, and I should be most grateful if you could find us something really lovely within very close distance of the hotel, so that we could have most of our meals there. It would be best if we could have three bedrooms, so that one of my students could stay with us and act as part-time nurse and baby sitter to Danny.

If such a house is not to be found, I would be interested in hearing from you on what conditions we could, like last year, again stay at the hotel, but for so long a period we would require more spacious rooms.

Looking forward to more lessons in square dancing and with best wishes from house to house for your happiness in the new year,

Yours cordially,

---
