Dear Henri,

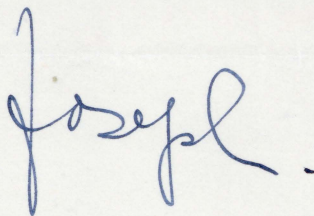

even before you have written to me about it, I was aware that the Paganini Quartet is scheduled only with one major classic work-it was unavoidable due to the fact that we have so many wind-instrument players and have to use them in various combinations and mostly in classic music. I am sorry that the burden of modern music has to rest on your shoulders!

The Schubert Rondo is a charming piece and I am sure you will have an outstanding success with it. I would gladly follow your suggestion and add Beethoven Romances, but I am afraid the program will be overlong and tiring. Nevertheless, let us keep it in mind.

As for Babin's Quartet, I am sincerely sorry that I did not know about it before the programs were ready and in print. I still hope we will find some special occasion to play it in Aspen, so please be kindly prepared.

May I expect your information which Bach Solo Sonata or Suite Mr. Frezin will play?

Most cordially yours
