AMERICAN RED CROSS.

Oct. 27, '18.

Dear Mother:-

I just wanted to write & let you know that I'm doing all right, getting the best of care & getting well as fast as can be expected.

The Red Cross & Y. M. C. A. men do everything they can to make us comfortable, furnish soap towels & all we need in that line as well as chocolate occasionally.

Have you heard from Clarence & Harrie? I haven't had any mail from anyone yet & should like to hear how they are.

There's no need for you to worry everything is going fine & from the looks of the papers it wont be long before were to gettier again.

I will enclose a coupon which if you send me a package for Christmas will have to be pasted on the outside of the package. The Red Cross people will furnish the right size box

Lots of love from

Robert.

Send chocolate or candy if you can get any.
