Dearest,

I'm very sorry if this letter will be short but here is the reason, This morning Zella and I went downtown with the kids. We left about 12 noon and we came home about 5:30 and I had to help her get supper ready and Kirby came home about 6:30 so by the time we got through it was about 7:30 now I'm writing this between dishes-time. Because I want this to get out before 8.

It was the funniest thing. Zella and I each went to pay a bill and she told me to at meet her at the Detroit Edison.

Well I went to the one on Washington Blvd. and Yella went to the one on Farmer. And I was waiting for her and she was waiting for me. Finally we happened to meet about an hour and a half later when you catch the street car.

She was worried about me and I was worried about her.
About coming to Oberlin on Halloween you know that part of the question and you know why.

I got a letter from my sister Francis in Cleveland and she asked me to come

3
and live with her. But I could not do that because my brother-in-law would never get along.

As for telling E. & others that I was going to Cleveland, I never did any such thing.

Well I'd better close this if I want to get it out.

yours,

Evabel.
