Darling,

I got your letter which I wasn't expecting and I was so glad to hear from you.

I have been writing kind of terrible letters but you will have to excuse it because things have just been so terrible and I miss you so awfully much. Gosh I don't think I'll ever get a job things are so bad here.

I went downtown to-day and gosh it sure is cold. I wore Zella's coat. now don't laugh it actually fits. you see it is a three quarter-length coat and Zella doesn't button it. So it fits² like a whole coat for me.

Tuesday was very nice and warm here too. It was the day Zella and I went downtown.
Did I tell you how we got lost from each other? Well Zella told me to meet her at the Detroit Edison so I waited at the one on Washington Blvd, and she was on the one on "Farmer", so she waited and I waited. Did I tell you about this before I don't remember but if I did please don't mind because I might be getting absent-minded.

That dollar you sent me just kept me in stockings. and honey I need some more stamps. Gosh I'm an awfull big expense aint I huh?

But you will have to get used to that because it's going to be like that all the rest of your life.

I don't know where we could go if you did come in for Halloween. I don't know of any places because I never go out any more. But I won't be able to come in for Halloween.
I'm going to yella's Burnmy Club to night. And she is telling me to hurry so I'll have to close.

Send my best regards to

⁴ your mother and Dad and Chuck and Bill and write and tell me what Genevieve said in her letter.

I love you darling,
your own
Evelyn,
