Darling,

I got your letter which I wasn't expecting and I was so glad to hear from you.

I have been writing kind of terrible letters but you will have to excuse it because things have just been so terrible and I miss you so awfully much. Gosh I don't think I'll ever get a job things are so bad here.

I went downtown to-day and gosh it sure is cold. I wore Zella's coat. now don't laugh it actually fits. you see it is a three quarter-length coat and Zella doesn't better it. So it fits² like a whole coat for me.

Tuesday was very nice and warm here too. It was the day Zella and I went downtown.
Did I tell you how we got lost from each other? Well Zella told me to meet her at the Detroit Edison so I waited at the one on Washington Blvd, and she was on the one on "Farmer", so she waited and I waited. Did I tell you about this before I don't remember but if I did please don't mind because I might be getting absent-minded.
That dollar you sent me just kept me in stockings and honey I need some more stamps. Gosh I'm an awfull big expense aint I huh?

But you will have to get used to that because it's going to be like that all the rest of your life.

I don't know where we could go if you did come in for Halloween. I don't know of any places because I never go out any more. But I won't be able to come in for Halloween.
I'm going to yella's Bummy Club to-night. And she is telling me to hurry so I'll have to close.

Send my best regards to
