Darling,

I got your letter which I wasn't expecting and I was so glad to hear from you. I have been writing lots of terrible letters but you will have to excuse it because things have just been so terrible and I miss you so awfully much. Gosh I don't think I'll ever get a job things are so bad here.

I went downtown to-day and gosh it sure is cold. Wore Zelda's coat, now don't laugh, it actually fits. you see it's a three-quarter length coat and Zelda doesn't better it. So it fits like a whole coat for me.

Tuesday was very nice and warm here too. It was the day yell and I went downtown. Did I tell you how we got lost from each other? Well, Jella told me to meet her at the Detroit Edison so I waited at the one on Washington Blvd. and she was on the one on Farmer, so she waited and I waited. Did I tell you about this before? I don't remember, but if I did please don't mind because I might be getting absent-minded. That dollar you sent me just kept me in stockings and honey I need some more stamps. Most I can ask awful big expense ain't I hate. But you will have to get used to that because it's going to be like that all the rest of your life.

I don't know where we could go if you did come in for Halloween. I don't know of any places because I never go out any more. But I won't be able to come in for Halloween. I'm going to zella's house to-night. And she is telling me to hurry so I'll have to close.

Send my best regards to your mother and Dad and Chuck and Bill and write and tell me what Genevieve said in her letter.

I love you darling.
