Darling,

Well here I am writing to you and answering your two letters That poem was so sweet. You sure can write poems. I'll bet you could get a job or something writing them. But, darling I love to get them.

Do you know what time it is?
It is now ten minutes to 12 on Sat nite and I just decided to answer you or rather it was this time before I could get around to answering you. Well, we got two Sunday papers and of course I had to read the penny and the magazine section and everything so you see all in all every thing takes time.

and any Zilla and Publie didn't leave till about 9:30 or 10 so I couldn't start before they left I mean reading the papers.
are you coming out for sure next Sat? Well if you are.
I think we are going out with Ann & Barney. What do you say to that. Does that suit you?
Do you know that next Sat it will be almost a month since we have seen each other, Somehow it doesn't that long or does it?

yes darling, I can think back now just about 16 months ago and it was just about this time about 5 after 12 that we were picked you and Bing up and fate climbed in the back seat with me. and darling you turned out to be my fate. Gosh we sure were sarcastic to each other.

That was such an unromantic beginning to our romance.
There was a beginning but Darling is there going to be an ending?

at the end of your last letter you said that I should give you a penny because you told me all your thoughts. Well, dear, I'd give you a penny for your thoughts but all I have is a nickle and I'd hate to break up such a large coin. so will you excuse me this time if I don't send you any?

Gosh did I have a time just now, both beds got up at the same time. Florrie had to make a wee-wee and Sandy just got up crying, and Floyrie was too sleepy to get out of bed, Bay what a time.

Did you send me ant the stamps dear, because I just have one more in which to write this letter and that all.

I had to buy four stamps beside those two ones I sent on the card.

you know I was just thinking about Peggy and what you said about her that she doesn't recognize you on the street. Well did you even stop to think that Peggy is very near-sighted and she doesn't see people very good.

Yosh, honey. I'm getting kind of sleepy as you can tell from my writing, so'll close.

P.S. I love you, your own, Evelyn.
