Friend Robert:

So you are home at last. Well old pal day good game you are as you know what France was and say boy were we going to go some fishing right up? Remember the day we left the shanty yard and said we would gone how long it will be before we see it again. Well I hope you can go up on the island about right of my old pal and when Clara and Carrie come home we can have our old gigante again and we I don't like this camp ag ye at Camp Pike did you like Nama. I guess you liked it as much as I did Bob and when we get to gether again we are going to play up for last time and have our good old times fishing again.
I think I will leave for Camp Dodge this week. Some time any way. My clothes are torn to hell. Do they give you new ones yet? I think I will close for this time as ever.
