Dear Jack,

First of all I don't understand. But nevertheless that doesn't matter. I guess my feeling don't matter.

I guess maybe I treated kind of rotten sometimes but I never realized that would cause our breakup.

But personally I don't think that is our cause, you just got kind of tired of me and my body. You got just what you wanted out of me, my heart, my soul, and my body. I guess I was just another victim you did love such a convincing lie on you. Of course I didn't know. But please tell me what is it that made you change your mind. Why didn't you tell me while you were here? Or are you a coward too?

And to think of what I was going to give up for you. Oh, You love fate must laugh at me, and you are too. But after all, Jack, I'm only a human being with a heart and maybe if you had given me a little wafting I could have taken it a little better. If you'll just my little heart ring has a crack in it you will know the reason.

Will you send me back my high school ring? I don't think you will need it and I don't want another girl to wear my ring. If you want me to send you back any thing, I will.

and please, just do me one more favor, that's all I'll ever ask of you. Please write and give me some kind of a proper explanation. Don't you think that is only being fair. If there is something, please don't fail to tell me. I've always stuck by you. But if you just got tired of me. Please tell me and I won't stand in your way.

Eva led.

and this month would have been a year. It was a little too long for you. Boy, have I been a fool. I gave you everything I had. now I can never marry a decent fellow. and I believed in you. What a joke on me.
