11-7-1937

Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence #079

Evabel Bell

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection

Recommended Citation
Bell, Evabel, "Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence #079" (1937). Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence Collection. 79. https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection/79

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.
Mr. Jack Bell
51 Groveland St.
Oberlin, Ohio
Darling,

Oh, you foolish, foolish sweet boy. Do you ever think I could get tired of you. Oh, darling, I love you so much that every part of me always is crying out for you. And if I ever did get tired of you (which I doubt very much) don't you think I would tell you or at least hint around a little.

Dook when I got that letter it seemed as though the whole world came crashing down and my heart was in it. When I wrote back to you I just almost couldn't keep from pleading with you to take me back and give me just one more chance. But remember one time I told you that if you would ever get tired of me I would never stand in your way. I decided to keep my promise and not stand in your way. Yes, I'm glad I wrote a letter like that instead of writing a real short letter like you did. Aren't you, Sweet? If I would have you never have known my real feelings and I wouldn't have known yours. And then we both would be separated, loving each other so much and yet not wanting to stand in each other's way. I guess I'm not that self-sacrificing type.

Do you know, I could tell something was wrong in that letter even before I read it. Because there was no return address on it.

I got a letter from your sister last week. Gosh she sure does write an awfully interesting letter. I'd like to answer her but I have no stamps. I've got one stamp and a nickel to get another but
Of course you come first, you come first in everything to me. You promised me before you left that you would send me some stamps. So honey I hope you aren't too mad to send me some.

I got a real cute little brown hat from Yella's sister-in-law and a beautiful aquamarine and brown dress. (Aquamarine is the color of my ring) and myrtle gave me a gorgeous pair of black shoes they were worn about 3 times. They cost about 10. They fit perfectly. 4/23. They are suede and pantent with a cross strap like my black and white. And Yella had a chiffon velvet dress that got too small for her so I fixed it over for me with little puff sleeves ok it's darling and on my brown coat I put a little fur collar and a fur pocket. God, honey when you come out the next time I've got so much to show you.

Tonight Yella and Rubie are taking me out to Myrtle and Gil's place! You know the one I was telling you about. But I'll be thinking about you all the time, God honey, you looked so sweet last nite. I thought all the girls were looking at you. You know, dear, the more I looked at your coat the better I liked it. I saw quite a few of them and honey please don't take me wrong, when I act kind of funny you'll know me better after this. You know I wish you were nearer so I could borrow some of your stationery. But as it is I'll have to use Yella's. So long, sweet remember I love you, always, your own,

Evelin
Mr. Jack Bell

51 Groveland St.

Oberlin,
Ohio
12739 Linwood
Detroit, Mich
Darling,

    Oh. you foolish, foolish, sweet boy.
Do you ever think I could get tired of you. Oh darling, I love you so much that every part of me always is crying out for you. And if I ever did get tired of you (which I doubt [underline]very[/underline] much) don’t you think I would tell you or at least hint around a little.

    Gosh when I got that letter it seemed as though the whole world came crashing down and my heart was in it. When I wrote back to you I just almost couldn’t keep from pleading with you to take me back and give me just one more chance. But remember one time I told you that if you would ever get tired of me I would never stand in your way. I decided to kind of keep my promise and 2.
not stand in your way. Gosh I’m glad I wrote a letter like that instead of writing a real short letter like you did. Aren’t you, Sweet? If I would have you never have known my real failings and I wouldn’t have known yours. And then we both would be separated, loving each other so much and yet not wanting to stand in each others way. I guess I’m not that self-sacrificing type.

Do you know. I could tell something was wrong in that letter even before I wrote read it. Because there was no return address on it.

I got a letter from your sister last week. Gosh she sure does write an awfully interesting letter.
I’d like to answer her but I have no stamps. I’ve got one stamp and a nickle to get another but
3. of course you come first. You come first in everything to me. You promised me before you [[strikethrough]]babe[[?]][[/strikethrough]] left that you would send me some stamps so honey I hope you aren’t too mad to send me some.

I got a real cute little brown hat from Zella’s sister-in-law and a beautiful [[strikethrough]]aq[[[/strikethrough]] aquamarine and brown dress. (aquam. Is the color of my ring) and Myrtle gave me a geourgous pair a black shoes they were warn about 3 times. They cost about $10. They fit perfectly. 4’ 2/3. They are suede and pantent with a cross strap like my black and white. And Zella had a chiffon velvet dress that got too small for her so I fixed it over for me with little puff sleeves on it’s darling, and on my brown coat I put a little fur collar.
And a fur pocket. Gosh, honey when you come out the next time I’ve got so much to show you.

Tonite Zella + Rubie are taking me out to Myrtle + Gil’s place. You know the one I was telling you about. But I’ll be thinking about you all the time. Gosh honey, you looked so sweet Sat. nite I thought all the girls were looking at you. You know, dear, the more I looked at your coat the better I liked it. I saw quite a few of them. And, honey, please don’t take me wrong, when I act kind of funny you’ll know me better after this.

You know I wish you were nearer so I could borrow some of your stationary. But as it is I’ll have to use Zella’s. So long Sweet remember I love you, allways.

Your own,

Evabel