Dear Mr. Temianka:

This is a lovely spring day in Aspen. Mr. Paepcke is here and everybody is busy.

My task at the moment is to build a Scholarship Fund and in this I am going to need the help of everyone concerned with the School, including the faculty. I'm getting out a scholarship request letter which I will send to a list made up of everyone I know of--people who have given small amounts to Aspen heretofore, the new names on the Friends of Aspen, etc.

Will you please send me a list immediately of everyone you can think of who might consider sending an amount, small or large, for the Scholarship Fund? When the letter is prepared, I will send you a few on which you can write a personal note and send to the selected names that you feel you can contact personally. Of course, don't send those in the list to me, but let me know how many letters you might use.

Mr. Paepcke has more than he can do without being asked to take this responsibility. The rest of us will just have to pitch in and work on it.

With many thanks for your assistance,

Sincerely yours,

Grace Denton
Executive Director
