Mrs. D. C. Parker
P. O. Box 102
Honolulu, T. H.

Dear Mrs. Parker:

We are delighted to see from your letter of March 3 that you and Mr. Parker are coming to Aspen this summer. I think we shall have a wonderful time together. We shall be there all of July and August and I have rented a house in the center of the little town, for Emmie, Danny and myself.

I am not well acquainted with the possibilities of Dude Ranches in the vicinity of Aspen, but you will receive all the information you could possibly want from Mr. Charles Bishop, Jerome Hotel, Aspen, Colorado. He runs the whole show as far as accommodations are concerned, he is extremely well informed and I think you will find him most helpful. He is a very good personal friend of mine and you might mention that I have referred you to him.

It is grand that you are coming, we shall look forward to an unhurried, lengthy visit with you.

With kindest regards to you and the Scheurers,

Yours cordially,

Henri Temianka
