Dearest,

So you like yallar stationary eh? you and Stella must be some kind of relation She seems to like yallar stationery.

How is our friend Bing? What does he have to say about Isabel?
I guess she is pretty worried about him. He hasn't been down for some time.

Did you go job hunting in Cleveland you might get some thing to do.

I have gone looking but it doesn't seem much good. I'm going out again.
I got a letter from Stella and she begged me to come out. She said she would even help me to pay for my fare. if some of the other kids would too. But I couldn't do that. That is awfully swell of her, but I couldn't do that I couldn't take money from her. But I sure would like to go out for Christmas Boy I'd have a swell time.

She told me that the Elyria Dry Goods Co. burned down and there isn't a thing left but a wall. Gosh that must have been some fire Did you see it?

Is you are doing some bumming up? How does it feel to be back again to the old practice, are you still as good in it?

Yella is sick so I have to take care of the kids and Floydie is so bad. He just about driving me crazy. Boy I sure wish I could get a job. I feel so funny sometimes The other night when I was going to sleep. Floydie and Sandy both woke up and neither wanted me to sleep with them and I didn't know what to do. Finally Reebie came in and had to give Floydie a kicking to make him let me sleep with him and then he was kicking me because he was mad. and I couldn't say anything. Those kids are so spoiled & God honey I only hope our kids aren't like that. It sure has been snowing here and now it is raining.

you know dear, I just happened to think that I owe your sister Minnie a letter. and boy I had better answer her too.

I owe Esther a letter too. Boy I'm a wonderful correspondent. I also got a letter from Bee. She didn't write much. She just asked me if I had from you.

She sure did like you.

I went out job hunting yesterday but it seems as though everyone has as many as they need.

I also went to my place but they said they won't have anything but those Mesage jobs which start on about 29th or 28th.

Well, darling, I must close before I write something which you won't care to read.

your own,
Evelyn.
